Another awesome fundraiser and public awareness campaign! Watch for photos on facebook, and extended video soon. If you were unable to attend, you really missed the event of the year! Many thanks to the EKU sorority girls, KY pageant winners & Laura Kirkpatrick (America's next Top Model 1st runner up) for volunteering to walk the runway for a great cause. A special thanks to Central Baptist Hospital, BB&T Insurance & Joann True of True Blue Beer Cheese for making this event possible.

Capacity Inc. 2010 year at a glance.....

100 professionals were chosen to attend the Global Gender Gap Report as initiated by the Aspen Leadership Institute (Madeline Albright is Co Founder). Capacity Inc.'s Founder, Sherry Piersol, was one of the 100 women invited to attend in D.C.

Over 250 women participated in The Urban Market, quickly becoming a national model in Lexington, KY. Combating unemployment, oppression and confronting small business challenges. 2011 monthly calendar released & the market goes global.

Break Chains Mend Hearts— researched for 2 years, scheduled to kick off at U.K. in Feb. 2011 with the goal of reaching college campuses throughout the east coast.

After being selected as one of KY's social justice representatives, Sherry's aha moment made it to the top 70 out of 1,000's for Mutual of Omaha's commercial.
